

Founder and President Müller-Möhl Group and Müller-Möhl Foundation, Zurich
Investor and Philanthropist (M.A. Political Science)

Background

Carolina Müller-Möhl, born 1968 in Zurich, studied, after finishing her secondary education at the international boarding school Schloss Salem in Germany, Politics, History and Law at the Ruprechts-Karls University of Heidelberg, London School of Economics (LSE) and the Otto Suhr Institute of Political Science at the Freie Universität Berlin where she graduated “insigni cum laude” as Political Scientist. She attended further trainings at the Harvard Kennedy School and the Institute for European Global Studies at the University of Basel.

Since 2000, Carolina Müller-Möhl has managed and presided over the Müller-Möhl Group, a Single-Family Office that actively manages the family’s investments. From 2004 to 2012, she was a member of the board of directors of Nestlé S.A. Since 2008, she has been a board member of Orascom Development Holding, a leading developer of fully integrated destinations and since 2010, of Neue Zürcher Zeitung (NZZ), a major media group in Switzerland. In 2015, she became a board member of Fielmann in Germany, Europe’s largest optician.

Carolina Müller-Möhl is highly committed to address socio-political causes and brings her efforts under the Müller-Möhl Foundation that she founded in 2012. The focus of the foundation is on education, compatibility of work and family life, promotion of a free market in Switzerland and philanthropy in general. Currently, the Müller-Möhl foundation supports more than 30 projects.

Furthermore, Carolina Müller-Möhl is involved in more than a dozen boards. For instance, she sits on the advisory board of the Swiss Economic Forum and the foundation board of the renowned Swiss think tank Avenir Suisse as well as the board of trustees of the internationally active Bertelsmann Foundation in Germany. In the field of education, Carolina Müller-Möhl is, amongst others, a member of the advisory board of Prof. Ernst Fehr’s Department of Economics at the University of Zurich, the University of St. Gallen, the Zurich University of the Arts, and of the foundation board of the Pestalozzi Foundation. With the objective to promote female talent, she is a member of the foundation board of the MBA for Women Foundation and the Art Stations Foundation CH. Finally, as a member of the advisory board, she actively supports EDGE Certified Foundation, the leading global assessment methodology and business certification standard that helps companies to create an optimal workplace for women and men. In the advisory board of EqualVoice, Carolina Müller-Möhl works to ensure that women have an equal say in the media.

In order to provide a platform for the various concerns, Carolina Müller-Möhl regularly gets involved as a speaker, panelist and columnist.

In recognition of her success and her philanthropic commitment, the World Economic Forum (WEF) nominated her as a Young Global Leader in 2007.
